

J.T. CLARK FAMILY FOUNDATION

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

The J. T. Clark Family Foundation was established in 1999 as a natural progression in the continuing philanthropy of the J.T. Clark Family and the Clark Automotive Group. The J.T. Clark Family Foundation is funded by John and Wilma Clark, members of their family and associated companies and is strongly reflective of the founder's philosophy.

FUNDING

The foundation may respond to requests from national appeals, however, for consideration, their scope must provide local benefits. Organizations requesting funds from the foundation will have projects which fall within the following categories: Education, Health and Welfare, community, Civic and Athletic, Environmental and Special Projects. The foundation frequently offers potential donation recipients a fundraising challenge as motivation to elevate efforts and stretch their fundraising goals. The challenge element typically is a dollar-for-dollar matching or an additional donation for exceeding a predetermined amount. These challenges are at the discretion of the Board.

EDUCATION

Capital campaigns of post-secondary educational institutions.

Local projects which support or strengthen the public education system.

Scholarships for worthy students to attend university. Of particular interest to the Foundation are NB students who wish to attend Acadia University and students who have above athletic abilities and academic standing in the first quartile.

HEALTH AND WELFARE

Capital campaigns of health care institutions.

Specific health appeals.

COMMUNITY, CIVIC & ATHLETIC

Community capital projects.

Lifestyle enhancement projects.

ENVIRONMENT

Projects to protect and conserve our environment.

SPECIAL PROJECTS

Projects which may not fall within the usual grant parameters, but which have particular merit.

THE J.T. CLARK FAMILY FOUNDATION DOES NOT SUPPORT:

Political or Religious Groups

Lobbying Organizations

Fund Raising Events

Event Sponsorships

Travel Expenses

Deficit Financing
